LORI REYNOLDS

Painting

Lori Reynolds and her husband, RC, of more than 35 years, settled in San Simon, Arizona in 2016 after 17 years on the road with Desert Reign (their award winning country gospel band). It was Christmas 2021 when Lori's mom gifted her with a paint set. She had never had any interest or talent in drawing or painting. Her mom said that it was on her heart to teach Lori to paint. She humored her mom and they finally got around to that first art lesson on Feb 10, 2022.

One short lesson was all it took and Lori was immediately obsessed! Dark and light in everyday life stood out to her as never before, textures, colors within colors... it was as if she was experiencing the beauty of this earth for the very first time. When she would sleep she would dream of painting. Lori is a natural and quickly started the challenging task of painting commissions, literally learning on the job.

In 2023 she received the honor of BEST OF SHOW for her painting "Cochise Head" which is actually her view from her back yard. Her prayer is that her paintings bless you far beyond just looking at a picture, but help you experience the awe and wonder of God's creation in your own life.
